DONIPHAN COUNTY

Doniphan is located in the northeastern most county in Kansas. Rugged landscapes, spectacular views and a rich history are included in the county.

To the west is Highland Community College and White Cloud. From a lookout, people can stand and look out over the Missouri River, seeing four different states.

In Highland is Irvin Hall, the oldest educational building in Kansas, dating to 1858, on the campus of Highland Community College.

Three miles outside Highland is the Iowa, Sac and Fox Mission State Historic Site, established in 1837 to serve Indians being relocated to Kansas from their ancestral homes.

On the courthouse lawn in Troy is a 35-foot Indian, carved by sculptor Peter Toth from a burr ark log. The Wilbur Chapman monument on Mail Street in White Cloud was erected by the American Leprosy Society, Home of the Piggy Boxla.

Doniphan County is known as the Barn Capitol of Kansas with more than 15 historical barns located throughout. Eight barns in particular are featured in the "Historic Barn Tour" brochure. These barns were nominated to the National Register of Historic Places for their architectural integrity.

The Pony Express originated in St. Joseph, MO, just across the river from Doniphan County.
