WILLISTON

Experience the History, Live the Adventure!

Located in the northwest corner of North Dakota just off the Missouri River, Williston is sure to have something for everyone with its welcoming community, rich history to explore and its many adventures to partake.

Williston is home to Fort Union Trading Post National Historic Site, Missouri-Yellowstone Confluence Interpretive Center, Fort Buford State Historic Site, Lewis and Clark State Park and is not far from Theodore Roosevelt National Park – North Unit.

With seven hotels to choose from, multiple campgrounds around the area, and bed and breakfast opportunities you are sure to find a place to meet all your needs. Williston is growing in its shopping opportunities and there are a variety of specialty shops to choose from in our downtown area. For your dining experience you will be able to find anything and everything from Junes-Berry Pie to great Italian.

If you like to take your adventures to the outdoors, Williston is the perfect destination for you. Being located near the confluence of the Missouri and Yellowstone Rivers and close to Lake Sakakawea there are many opportunities for canoeing, kayaking, boating, fishing, hiking, biking, birding, and relaxing in the great outdoors. There are many scenic drives to take whether you are on a motorcycle or just out for an afternoon stroll. Williston also offers three great golf courses to choose from. For your evening entertainment you could take in a movie at the last operating Drive-In Movie Theater in North Dakota.

Williston is host to many events throughout the year, so to get more details on planning your next adventure, contact the Williston Convention and Visitor Bureau at (800) 615-9041 or www.willistonndtourism.com
