HANKINSON

Welcome to the friendly community of Hankinson, North Dakota! Hankinson is a vital, community-minded town located 60 miles south of Fargo, near the junction of Interstate 29 and Highway 11. We're a "City on the Grow" because we care enough to make things happen in our community!

Hankinson is a rural community with farming being a large part of our economy. Corn, soybeans, wheat, oats, barley, and potatoes are common small grains grown in the area. Livestock is another important asset for the area farmers. Economic development is also very active in our community.

Recreational opportunities are plentiful in the city of Hankinson and surrounding area. Our centrally-located city park occupies eight city blocks. Newly installed playground equipment graces the area and allows our citizens and visitors a safe place for their children. The park also contains picnic facilities, lighted basketball and tennis courts, a bike path, an outdoor stage, camper hookups (heavy-load capable) and two softball diamonds.

Hunting and fishing are very popular in this area. We offer great duck hunting and deer hunting. Our own Lake Elsie offers great fishing for Walleye, Northern Pike, and Perch. Hankinson also has a snowmobile trail and the Sandhills' Rodeo Club.

The community boasts an attractive business climate and is home to over 90 businesses. Several new buildings line main street, including the bank, fire hall, and the grocery store. Our community has an active Commercial Club, Community Development Corporation, Industrial Board, Community Betterment Club, American Legion Post, Volunteer Fire Department, and Volunteer Ambulance Service.

Please take time to explore the community of Hankinson and see for yourself the opportunities that await you here. If you've never had the opportunity to experience rural life, Hankinson is a great place to start! Our community always welcomes new businesses and people.
