

Pine Ridge Women in Costume (photo courtesy Hamner Fotos)

NEWELL

Located at the junction of State Highway 79 and U.S. 212.

If you like discovering small friendly towns while on vacation, you will love Newell, the northern gateway to the Black Hills National Forest.

Newell puts you in close proximity to all the splendor of the Black Hills, world famous historical sites and remarkable recreation areas. In Newell, you will find new friendships, cafes featuring down-home cooking and supplies for outdoor recreation. If you visit Newell during Labor Day, enjoy the huge celebration featuring a parade, street games, an old time amateur rodeo, evening dance, car and antique tractor show and antique tractor pull.

Newell is best known as South Dakota's largest sheep and lamb raising area and market. Recreation areas close to Newell include fishing for bass, crappie, bluegill, walleye and northerns at many of the dams in the area, especially Orman Dam, Newell Lake and Golf Course Lake.

The reservoirs and lakes in the area also provide the opportunity for water-skiing, boating and swimming. Hunters can find pheasant, duck, wild turkey, grouse, antelope and deer. Golfers can enjoy an irrigated nine-hole course with the Black Hills and Bear Butte in the background.

Visitors are always welcome. Wanting something different to look at? Visit one of several Buffalo Ranches which are close to Newell. Phone (605) 456-2737, for more information or write to Newell Community Club, P.O. Box 532, Newell, SD 57760.

PINE RIDGE

Located off U.S. 18 on the South Dakota / Nebraska border.

The village of Pine Ridge is on the nearly 1.8 million acre Pine Ridge Reservation.

You will enjoy a visit to the Heritage Center at the Red Cloud Indian School where you will learn about the culture and history of the Lakota people.

Built in 1888, Oglala Lakota children are still educated at the school. The Center features artwork and artifacts from the tribes of the northern Great Plains. Guided tours of the campus and the 1888 building are available in the summer season. No admission is charged for the Center. Pine Ridge hosts several events throughout the year, including the Wakpamni Powwow on July 4th. The Oglala Nation Fair and Rodeo is held the first weekend in August; the Kyle Fair is the third weekend in August and the Porcupine Powwow is on Labor Day Weekend.

For a great time, stop in at a casino to try your luck at slots, blackjack and poker. Pine Ridge is truly an exciting experience for the whole family.

OGLALA LAKOTA COLLEGE

Oglala Lakota College (OLC)

is a four-year tribal college serving over 1,800 students a semester with nine college centers on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, one on the Cheyenne River Reservation and a center in Rapid City, SD. OLC was officially chartered by the authority of the Oglala Sioux Tribe in 1971. OLC is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges. Its mission is to provide educational opportunities that enhance Lakota life. These opportunities include: community services, certificates, GED, associate, bachelor and graduate degrees.

RAPID CITY

Located off I-90.

Rapid City, South Dakota's second largest city, is the gateway to the Black Hills.

For a great vacation whether you're seeing the sights for the first time or planning the adventure of a lifetime, Rapid City is where it begins. Rapid City and the surrounding area is where the Academy Award winning movie "Dances With Wolves" was finished.

There is much to see and do around Rapid City. As a destination center, Rapid City has many attractions and activities and functions as a trading center and is

Oglala Lakota College Historical Center

See, hear and feel the history of the Oglala Lakota people from the early 1800s through the Wounded Knee Massacre in 1890.

*Open: Mon. thru Sat. 9:00 a.m. to 5 p.m.
June thru September, FREE*

Located seven miles southwest of Kyle, SD in the heart of the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation.

OGLALA LAKOTA COLLEGE
490 Piya Wiconi Road, Kyle, SD 57752
(605) 455-6000 • Fax (605) 455-2787 • www.olc.edu

St. Joe Antiques Mall & Gifts

40 Dealers On Two Floors

Jan. - April: 9:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
May - Dec.: 9:30 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.
Mon. - Sat. • Thurs. till 8:00 p.m.

615 St. Joe • Downtown Rapid City, SD 57701

(605) 341-1073

