AKTA LAKOTA MUSEUM AND CULTURAL CENTER

The Akta Lakota Museum and Cultural Center opened in 1991 on the campus of St. Joseph's Indian School. The words "Akta Lakota," meaning "to honor" the museum is truly intended to honor and preserve the rich culture of the Lakota people, the students at St. Joseph's Indian School and the thousands who visit the museum each year.

The museum's collection features art, artifacts and educational displays that depict the proud heritage of the Lakota people. The facility is more than a traditional museum; it is an experience that provides visitors with a living lesson on the Native American way of life, both past and present. The sounds and images of our Native American Cultural Center surround visitors the moment they walk in the door.

Visitors are taken on a visual journey through the proud heritage of the Lakota people and into the excitement of contemporary Indian art. Cultural symbolism and power of the Lakota way of thinking speak through our exhibits. Artifact displays of unsurpassed quality provide a true insight into Lakota life. A thirty-six foot diorama, using actual foliage from the area, gives a sweeping view of life on the prairie from the Missouri River to the Black Hills prior to Euro-American contact. The audio/visual observation area transports the viewer into the realities of daily experiences of the Plains Indians.

Visual literacy enables each succeeding generation to learn through the art, it binds the generations together; yet, each generation finds ways to express for themselves what it means to be Indian. The art and artifacts become a way to see those changing definitions through time.

Our Gift Shop and Collector's Gallery offer a unique selection of jewelry, star quilts, dolls, books, cards, baskets, pottery, moccasins, original art and much more. Come visit the Akta Lakota Museum and Cultural Center and share the culture of the Lakota people.

FORT THOMPSON / LOWER BRULE CROW CREEK SIOUX TRIBAL TRAVEL TOUR

Located N. of Chamberlain on SR 50.

Fort Thompson is located approximately 20 miles north of Chamberlain on State Highway 50 on the Crow Creek Indian Reservation and on the eastern shores of Lake Sharpe. On the western shores of the Missouri and Lake Sharpe is the Lower Brule Indian Reservation and the town of Lower Brule. The two Reservations together total 125,000 acres and are filled with great outdoor recreation areas and an interesting history.

Events such as the Lower Brule Fair and Powwow are held in August in the town of Lower Brule where you can also enjoy gaming and great food at the casino. Fort Thompson hosts the Crow Creek Powwow, also in August. Recreational highlights are the water sports on Lake Sharpe, a Missouri River reservoir. This is a great area for swimming, boating and water-skiing, as well as year-round fishing.

The hunting opportunities are the best in this region and attract sportsmen from around the country. Fishing and hunting packages are available through the casino in Fort Thompson.

The "self guided" American Indian Loop Tour is a scenic drive along the Missouri River. The highlights of the drive are a stop at the Akta Lakota Museum at St. Joseph's Indian School in Chamberlain. The
